Gordon Biersch brews only authentic, German-style beers according to Reinheitsgebot (the age-old German Purity Law of beer) with only the finest ingredients: Hallertauer hops, two-row malted barley, and a special yeast strain imported directly from Germany.

Since 1998, Gordon Biersch Brewing Company has more than doubled its production, increasing its capacity to 3.1 million gallons of beer annually, making Gordon Biersch Brewing Company the largest brewery in the San Francisco Bay Area.

The St. Justin School Golf Tournament Committee thanks Gordon Biersch for its generous donations that make our tournament the success that it is.
Justin Vineyards and Winery began as a dream to produce iconic Bordeaux-style wines when, in 1981, Justin Baldwin purchased 160 acres in Paso Robles. Since then, Justin Vineyards and Winery increased its acreage as well as its knowledge of viniculture in this unique region. Rich in fossilized limestone from eons of marine deposits, the soil Justin’s vineyards is ideally-suited to creating big, Bordeaux-style reds. The soil, similar to that of Bordeaux, France, includes minerals that “stress” the vines, thereby producing grapes that fully express their varietal character.

The St. Justin School Golf Committee asks that you seek out and enjoy a bottle of JUSTIN wine, which can be shipped to your doorstep via its web site (see below).

The Lucky brand started in 1935 when Charles Crouch began opening grocery stores in the Bay Area. The stores did so well he renamed them Lucky stores with a goal of being the freshest, cleanest, quickest, most organized and easiest store to shop. Lucky grew into a national company offering a wide range of services. In 2007, Modesto-based Save Mart Supermarkets acquired former Lucky Supermarket stores in Northern California, and brought the “Lucky” brand back to Bay Area residents through store conversions, along with the same values of quality, freshness and service that the brand started with in the beginning.
